In the midst of general gloom, the democrats are on a still hunt in the east.

Mr. Blaine's white plum is seen in the thick of the fight, and is the signal for enthusiasm wherever it is seen.

Democrat's seven miles are kicking a good deal in Ohio. They are kicking the democratic party in a very tender spot.

There are a good many shaps and shadows that fit and dance upon the horizon of the democratic circles, but the one which gives the democrats the worst fright is Cleveland.

The republicans will be glad to hear that Mr. Schurz is still on the stump for the democrats. This means that he is working votes for Blaine, and without any cost to republicans.

The Rev. Dr. Galusha Anderson, president of the Chicago University, formerly pastor of the Baptist church of this city, is to deliver a speech to-morrow evening at Hyde Park, Ill., for the Blaine and Logan club.

That great democratic paper, the Cincinnati Enquirer, sent a correspondent through Ohio, to write up the political prospects. He traveled over a good share of the state since the campaign began reports that every farmer with whom he has talked, who had voted the republican ticket previous to 1883, but who on account of the tariff, has decided to vote the republican ticket this year.

It is said that modern invention has performed no greater service to any science than it has to astronomy; within a life time of a generation the improvements in astronomy have lowered the record of a cannon ball passing from the earth to the sun from twenty-five years to fifteen. But no modern invention can perform the service of putting the democrats in power in fifteen years. It will take longer than that for the democracy to reach the white house.

Colonel Vilas has been known throughout the country as "the young Wisconsin statesman," who is an earnest reformer, who is more an aristocratic name for what is vulgarly known as a free-trader. The colonel declined at Bait the other night to talk about protection and free-trade, on the ground that he had never studied the question and knew nothing about it. Is it not reasonable to infer that the colonel and others like him are free traders because of their ignorance?

Things don't agree in the democratic party. The democratic papers are crying down Mr. Blaine's tour for the reason that it is damaging him and the party. Well, answers Storr, "one would think they would encourage him to prolong it, instead of clamoring so loudly against it and telling him how much better it is for a presidential candidate to stay at home with his mouth locked and the combination lost like the nice, modest, self-contained Mr. Cleveland."

Thousands of democrats in Pennsylvania and Ohio will vote the republican ticket this year because the party has taken an honest stand on the wool question. They argue that it was the republican wool tariff of 1867 that has done so much to bring into existence the present extensive wool industry. Those wool growers argue that it is better to stand on the broad principles of protection and on a platform that recognizes sheep industry, than to base their hopes on a "tariff for government purposes exclusively," that carefully ignores the wool protection, and promises nothing but reductions in duty, regardless of the condition of the several industries dependent on the tariff.

Turn the revolvers out, cry the democrats. Let us see about that. Under democrat, it is, here is the way the treasury was managed for the year ending July 1, 1881:

Receipts.....$41,478,228.49

Expenditures by the government.....$40,628,375.78

Surplus by the government.....$849,852.71

Excess of receipts over expenditures.....$849,852.71

Here we see that the democrats spent 21 million dollars more than they received. But under republican rule, here is the way the treasury was managed for the year ending July 1, 1883:

Receipts.....$53,823,228.28

Expenditures by the government.....$53,823,228.28

Surplus by the government.....$0.00

Excess of receipts over expenditures.....$0.00

(or 11¢ per cent.)

Amount already paid toward redeeming the currency.....$24,922,179.61

Every voter, when he reads these figures, will feel like joining in the chorus—"Keep the revolvers out!"

Recently, the New York World published some propositions for democrats to bet, and among them are the following:

One thousand dollars even Cleveland

One New York by 50,000 majority.

That he should be five hundred dollars for New York by 10,000 majority.

One thousand even that he carries

Twenty-five hundred $750 he carries

One thousand to $400 that he carries

New Jersey.

Five thousand to $8,500 he will be elected.

This money, $11,500 in all, is now on deposit with George Ruckert, No. 53 Bowery.

It didn't take long to find out that these were mythical bets, and published to entice democrats, and scare republicans. No such bets were offered and no democrat could be found who would bet.

A WOMAN DID IT.

There has been a good deal of curiosity among the republicans in the campaign to know who wrote the famous editorial in the Chicago Times, entitled, "Let it Die," and published November 10, 1883.

It was one of the most scathing articles on the democracy ever printed in the editorial columns of a newspaper, and it was all the more surprising that it should appear in the democratic newspaper.

The authorship of that great anti-democratic editorial, which is now being so rigorously used as a campaign document by the republicans, was not generally known until recently. A prominent Chicagoan, who had recently been in Milwaukee, told a correspondent of the Inter Ocean, that the authorship of that article should be credited to Mrs. Sullivan, wife of Alexander Sullivan, ex-president of the National Irish League. Mrs. Sullivan is a very accomplished lady, and like her husband is a strong writer, and frequently furnished the Times some important editorial copy. "Let it Die" was one of the editorials she furnished immediately after the national election when Hancock and his party went down in overwhelming defeat.

In four weeks from now there will be an occasion for the Times to reprint that editorial. Cleveland will drag his party down to a worse defeat than the democracy suffered in 1880. The end is near and the result is very certain. The democracy can not survive the cowardly act of nominating Grover Cleveland, and on the fourth of November 1884, the judgment of the American people will be "Let it die."

LOOK AT THIS.

Some democrats tell the people that the tariff is not an issue in this campaign. Others tell the people that the democrats want just enough of a tariff reform to keep the industries of the country alive and the working classes at work. Others are telling the people that the democratic party want free trade.

It is profitable to look back a few years and see whether or not the people will allow the democratic leaders to monkey with the tariff question. As a rule the heart of the American is right on all public questions. The people never flinch away common sense and the shadows that the democratic managers prepare for campaign purposes. In 1880, some five or six weeks before the election, the walking democrats began to realize that General Hancock was not sound on the tariff question, so they began to talk about the matter, and finally decided to see how much General Hancock knew about the tariff, and what his opinion was on the great question which stands foremost in our politics to-day. He published his famous letter on the tariff in which he called it "local issue!" What was the result? Election day came and the citizens of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut deposited their ballots. New Jersey had given Tilden in 1870 a majority of 12,415 over Hayes. It gave Hancock a majority of only 2010 votes. In Connecticut the democratic plurality in 1876 had been 2600. Hancock lost the state in 1877 by 2665 votes. In New York Tilden's plurality of 32,518 disappeared and Garfield carried the state by 21,033 votes.

These facts may be a little unsavory to the democrats in this campaign, but they are history. History will repeat itself in 1884, for the American people are in dead earnest in this matter.

IMPORTANT, IF TRUE.

The old news from the Potomac used to be, almost every day, "Important, if true." There is a piece of news coming from Massachusetts which is very important, if true. The Rev. Robert Norcross, who is well known throughout the north west, especially in Wisconsin, as a lecturer, has recently been lecturing in the east, and while in Massachusetts he had a conversation with President J. H. Sealey, of Amherst college, on the political issues of the day. Our readers will remember that President Sealey, though originally a republican, is now an independent, or early in the campaign decided in his mind that he didn't like Blaine and did like Cleveland. But when the record of Cleveland was brought to light he refused to support him; and when he had more carefully studied the grand character of Mr. Blaine, he concluded that he wasn't such a bad man after all. But President Sealey's independence was so thoroughly rooted in him, that he finally decided not to vote for either Blaine or Cleveland, but would support St. John.

Now comes that which is "important, if true." Mr. Norcross states that President Sealey told him that a prominent democrat, one having authority to speak, asked him if he would take the democratic nomination for the presidency in place of Cleveland, provided Ohio went republican in October. President Sealey gave a negative answer, chiefly on the ground that it would be too late to make a change in the democratic ticket.

The managers of the democratic party are convinced that Mr. Cleveland can not be elected, and will consider their case hopeless to absolute despair, if Ohio should go republican on the 14th. With the faint hope that there might be a possibility of success should Cleveland decline, this proposition was made.

to President Sealey. One can hardly doubt Mr. Norcross's word on this point, although it seems strange that at the eleventh hour, with the democratic party standing on the very verge of a demoralizing defeat and hopeless despair, the leaders would to change their ticket. Such an act would be worse than trading horses in the middle of a deep and rushing stream.

When your blood is impoverished, or clogged, the remedy is at hand. Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

VOTERS IN DEMAND.

The Great Struggle for Majority Goes Bravely On.

And the Leaders in Politics Bend Their Efforts to Secure the Desired Object—Movements of the Campaign Bandwagon.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—The Inter Ocean's special from Cincinnati says: There are facts in the political situation at the present moment in Ohio that indicate clearly how intensely earnest both of the great parties are. One of these facts is lack of confidence by both parties. Workers on both sides are wary of the other, and are not at all sure that they will not be "run out" just as they are now. Nobody is betting. Eight years ago at this stage of the game both were nervous and betting was lively. Another indication of the general feeling of uncertainty as well as of the general interest is the enormous large attendance at the political meetings on both sides. The democratic meeting at Hamilton, and at Columbus, and the gatherings in Cleveland and Cincinnati, testify to the fact that Mr. Blaine was the example of the class last described. Both parties appear to be attaching more and more importance to the results of the October election in Ohio. This is shown by the number of speakers chosen into the field by both parties at the present stage of the contest. Each party has been pushing reinforcements to the front until the state is literally swarming with speakers from prominent speakers from home and abroad. The phenomena which have attended the visits of Blaine and Logan to Ohio may have stimulated the democrats to increased activity, and on the other hand, want leaders have been lured by the prospect that Ohio may have the effect to urge the republicans to greater activity. The appointments for speakers already made by both parties extend in only a few instances beyond the October election, but they are very likely immediately preceding that event.

Democratic Parade at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 6.—Saturday night was a great night for the Democracy of Milwaukee city and county, as it was the occasion of the torchlight parade of the marching clubs. Nearly 5,000 men were in the line. The procession occupied an hour in passing a given point. The line of march was on National avenue to Clinton street, thence to Broadway, thence to Division street and from there to First street. On the west side Third, Galusha and Fifth streets were traversed. At the column came up Broadway, and again coming down Fifth street, the spectacle presented by the waving line of fire was handsome. Among the marching clubs were a company from the west side, who, instead of torches, bore red and green lights. The procession was thick with transparencies. The buildings along the line of march, especially on the west side, were very generally illuminated. The crowd of spectators which witnessed the parade is variously estimated at from 25,000 to 40,000. Arriving at the exposition building, Gen. Logan and Mr. Hendricks, who were the guest of honor on the democratic side, took their places on the stand which had been erected, and the column passed in review before them. The gubernatorial candidate was loudly cheered by the clubs, and went by. This closed the exercises of the evening, and the clubs dispersed to their several wards.

Hendricks at Wheeling.

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 6.—Ex-Governor Hendricks and Col. John R. Fellows came into this city Saturday morning at dawn. At the station a detachment composed of local militia met them, and they were escorted to the hotel. Mr. Hendricks, in a piece of artillery assisted at the welcome. During the morning he held an informal reception at his hotel, and at 10:30 o'clock he entered a carriage containing Governor Jackson, Joseph S. Miller, auditor general of state, and Lewis Baker, editor of the Daily Register of this city, and the members of the national committee.

The daylight demonstration was composed of various and vehicles and marching clubs. Greater was the line of display, being the largest demonstration of the kind held here during the campaign. Mr. Hendricks was enthusiastically cheered along the line of march, which ended at the fair grounds, where a great crowd collected, and was addressed by Mr. Hendricks, who was followed by Col. Fellows and Hon. S. J. Randall. In the evening Col. Fellows spoke at Capitol square to a large audience. The high tide of the campaign was reached, and was reviewed by Mr. Hendricks from the west porch of the capitol, and afterward made some brief remarks, which were loudly and enthusiastically cheered. Each club saluted the distinguished visitor as it passed.

Blaine at Baltimore, Ohio.

BELLEVILLE, Ohio, Oct. 6.—The special train bearing Mr. Blaine and party reached here at 7 p. m. Saturday, having left Columbus at 10 a. m. The trip here was a pleasant one. Stops were made at Newark, where both parties gave Mr. Blaine a reception and he made a short speech which had no political in it. The meeting had no political significance. In the evening Mr. Blaine was met by a large crowd, and Mr. Blaine was presented with a handsome pyramid of flowers, for which he returned his sincere thanks; Cambridge, and other places, at all which there were very large crowds, and Mr. Blaine spoke to a few moments.

The jam at the hotel here was so great that the distinguished guest himself had to appeal to the people to disperse. The public square was full at night to listen to the speeches and there was a long and brilliant torchlight procession. Mr. Blaine was the last speaker and made an out-and-out protective tariff speech. He was frequently interrupted by applause. The party will make a trip to Graham, W. V., Monday, and be at Wheeling, Tuesday.

The Indiana Fight.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 6.—Both the Republican and Democratic central committees are well supplied with campaign orators, and over 100 political speakers are delivered daily.

Gen. Logan, it is understood, will both Indiana and Ohio, and will visit every section of the state, traversed by Blaine, making two speeches daily. He and Mr. Hendricks will probably be counter-attractions at some places.

Logan's Ohio Campaign.

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio, Oct. 6.—Gen. Logan arrived here at 3 p. m. Saturday. His arrival at Columbus was unheralded and there was no large crowd as he would have been expected. It had been generally known he was coming. There was a throng of people, however, at the station there, and a period of hush-taking. The train was warmly welcomed at all the stations along the line, large crowds assembling and cheering the general as he made his appearance.

At this point the general, seeing that the fair grounds to 3,000 people, devoting his remarks principally to the tariff question, after that speech the general was besieged by a throng who wanted to shake him. At night there was a very large demonstration and a torchlight procession which was reviewed by Gen. Logan from the front of the court house. Speeches were made by ex-Governor Hayes and others, and the crowd was very enthusiastic. Gen. Logan remained here Saturday night and went to Hamilton Sunday. He will make a tour of West Virginia, and be at Philadelphia on the 8th.

Change in Blaine's Programme.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—The Times special from Columbus says: Another programme is announced that will keep Blaine on the road in this state till the day before election, and he will have to travel close by night. If he gets across the border before the ballots are cast. This time he passes up through the heart of the Western reserve, then down the Scioto valley, then down the river country, coming up through the Hocking valley coal-mining region. Next Sunday he will spend at Lancaster with the Swings and other relatives. Blaine's second route is so arranged as to take in the close congressional districts, in which the contest is the tightest, and in which the odds will be made to such an extent as to change the result on the state ticket. The results in the districts of Page and McKim, Grant and Warner, Pollock, and Butler will be very close, while in others the fight is bitter.

Butler Meeting at Joliet.

JOLIET, Ill., Oct. 6.—The Butler party held forth here Saturday at the opera house. Over 800 workmen came from the mining districts of Will and Grundy counties, besides others from Sangamon, Union, Hamilton, Gardner, and other places. The meeting in the afternoon was addressed by C. C. Strawn, of Pontiac, and C. C. Dixon, member of the state central committee of the People's party of Illinois. The opening hour was devoted to the evening to hear addresses from A. C. Vandewater, candidate for lieutenant governor on the People's ticket, and William H. Blair, of Chicago. An overflow meeting of about 1,500 people was addressed by C. C. Strawn, and George W. Patton at the Shurtz house park.

Going to Have a Big Rally.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The great rally of the Democracy yet projected will be held in Irving hall and Union square, this city, on Thursday, Oct. 9, at 8 p. m. Preparations are being made to entertain an audience of 100,000 people, and over fifty named speakers have been invited to address the multitude, including Samuel J. Tilden, Louis Abbott, Thomas F. Bayard, John G. Carlisle, Carl Schurz, Samuel J. Randall, Horatio Seymour, Thomas M. Waller, Francis Pickens, David C. Broderick, J. M. McKim, John T. Tucker, Patrick A. Collins, John Boyle O'Reilly, Gen. Roger A. Pryor, and Gen. Floray Sigel.

Blaine's Appointments in Michigan.

DETROIT, Oct. 6.—The Republican state committee has adopted the following programme for Michigan: This state, Detroit, Detroit Tuesday, Oct. 14, and spends the night here. At 10:30 Wednesday he leaves for Lansing, Ionia, Big Rapids, and Grand Rapids, with brief stops at intermediate places. He stays at Grand Rapids all night. Thursday he leaves for Holland, and then for Muskegon, Saginaw City, and East Saginaw. Friday at 9:30 a. m. he leaves for Bay City, from which place the party goes to Lapeer and Port Huron, and will reach Detroit about 7:30.

Carrying a Banner to Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 6.—At noon Saturday there arrived in this city a sturdy democratic named P. J. Gilligan bearing a beautiful silk United States flag fringed with gold bullion and bearing the inscription: "Love to New York, for Grover Cleveland and Thomas A. Hendricks from the Cleveland and Hamilton clubs of Cedar Rapids, Iowa." He has traveled the 570 miles between Cedar Rapids and here on foot, starting five weeks ago. His destination is Albany, N. Y., where he will put the banner in the hands of the standard bearer of the democratic party.

Going to Oppose Tammany.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—About twenty prominent gentlemen, including representatives of both political parties, met Friday night informally at Delmonico's to talk over plans for uniting on a first-rate citizens' ticket to defeat Tammany. The movement is said to be a strictly non-partisan effort toward municipal reform, regardless of party ties. A mass meeting is projected to test the sense of the public.

Preparing for Blaine and Logan.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 6.—Blaine and Logan are to be present at a grand reception in this city Oct. 24. Preparations for the entertainment of veteran soldiers are being made by the committee, who have produced the use of from 300 to 400 tents, which will be pitched on the state capitol grounds. The preparations will be ample to take care of 100,000 strangers.

Oregon Democrats.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 6.—The Democrats of Oregon had the first meetings of the campaign all over the state Saturday night, which were generally well attended. The state central committee concluded not to have big demonstrations, but confine themselves to frequent ward and district meetings.

St. John in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 6.—Ex-Governor St. John, prohibition presidential candidate, was in the city Sunday and attended the Western Christian Temperance union mass meeting at St. John's hall in the afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Governor Cleveland at Albany.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Governor Cleveland, accompanied by Erasmus Corning, Mayor Banks, and John A. McCull, Jr., arrived from Buffalo Saturday. There were no demonstrations on route, owing to the wish of the governor.

Kiralfy's "Excelsior" in Trouble.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 6.—The "Excelsior" company, which has been playing at Hancock's house in New York, came west to give a grand Saturday night. After the performance had commenced, a writ of attachment was served on the Kiralfys, and all the properties of every sort were taken possession of by deputy sheriff. The Kiralfys made under a writ brought in the superior court Saturday by John T. MacAulay and others, of Louisville, claiming $5,000 damages. The suit is an alleged breach of contract. The Kiralfys could not give bond Saturday night to take their show out of town.

Three Men Killed on the Rail.

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 6.—Early Sunday morning a Northern Pacific freight train loaded with wheat, was off the track at Spirit Lake, seven miles from this city. Seven cars were wrecked and three trainmen killed and two injured. The track had been washed by the recent storm.

Struck by a Wild Bull.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 6.—Henry Klump, aged 19, was accidentally shot in the neck and dangerously injured by an unknown party while he was fishing Sunday morning. It is supposed the shooting was done by men engaged in rifle practice.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering from teething with the pain of cutting teeth? Go, send at once a bottle of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Small Children to your druggist. It will cure your child's teething troubles, and give you peace of mind. It is a safe and reliable remedy, and is the only one that will cure your child's teething troubles, and give you peace of mind. It is a safe and reliable remedy, and is the only one that will cure your child's teething troubles, and give you peace of mind.

ANOTHER GRAND RALLY

In the Court House Park This Evening.

Address by Dr. J. H. Randall, of Jamestown, New York.

Every One Turn out and Hear in Good Speech.
Dr. J. H. Randall, who delivered the able address in Lappin's hall on Saturday evening, will address the people this evening in the court house park. The Bower City band will be in attendance. Every one who desires to hear the issues discussed in a fair and candid manner should be present, and hear Mr. Randall on this occasion.

—Temple of Honor night.
—Main street underwent a thorough cleaning to-day.

—Regular meeting of the common council, this evening.

—Nov. Father Morrissey, of Watertown, preached an eloquent sermon at St. Patrick's church yesterday.

—Attend the republican meeting in the court house park this evening. Dr. Randall, of Jamestown, New York, will address the multitude.

—Secure your reserved seats for Magie Mitchell, in the "Little Savage," Wednesday evening, October 8th. The opera house will be crowded.

—Messrs. Metcalf & DeLong have commenced operations for the building of a new tobacco warehouse on West Milwaukee street, just west of the re-sawed, in warehouse of A. E. Stevens.

—The Blaine & Logan club offer a reward of ten dollars for the arrest and conviction of the person who throw an egg at the Blaine and Logan banner on Saturday evening, on West Milwaukee street.

—Messrs. G. A. Metcalf & Co., the hardware merchants on West Milwaukee street, had a fine display of stoves on exhibition at the county fair. The Argand appeared in all its glory in the Domestic department.

—Yesterday it was discovered that the Fifth ward fire district had sprung a leak near the bottom, and nearly all the water had disappeared. The district has not been examined yet to ascertain the cause of the leak.

—A North River street saloon keeper left his saloon wide open on Saturday night, and on Sunday morning complained to the marshal that he had lost a considerable sum of money, just how much he could not state.

—Why not have a general illumination in connection with the monster republican torch light procession on the 10th? Such an addition would add much to the appearance of our city, especially to the thousands of visitors.

—John Doherty was before the municipal court to-day, on charge of drunkenness, and was fined five dollars and costs, ($5.00) and three days in jail, in default of payment he is to remain in county charge five days longer.

—Mr. William F. Williams, the republican candidate for county clerk, who has been very seriously ill at his home in Evansville is now rapidly recovering and the Evansville Enterprise says, "will soon be able to go on duty again."

—Gairbraith brothers, of this city, who made the largest exhibit in the horse department at the county fair last week captured thirteen first premiums, and five seconds, all on their superb stud of imported Clydesdales.

—Mr. B. Spence, of the First ward, left the premium watermelon at the Gazette office on Saturday afternoon, with a specimen of grapes and egg plant. Mr. Spence captured fifteen prizes at the county fair in the vegetable and fruit departments.

—We were shown some ripe strawberries this morning, taken from the garden of John D. Eble, in the Second ward yesterday. They were ripe and as large as Wisconsin hickory nuts. This, of course, is the second crop this season, a very rare freak in this climate.

—Judging from the large advance sale of seats for Magie Mitchell, that celebrated actress will have a crowded house on Wednesday evening. We would kindly suggest that those who desire reserved seats should see to it at once, as they cost no more than a regular admission ticket.

—On Saturday night Mr. J. L. Ford received five dozen Blaine and Logan campaign hats and they were taken this morning like hot cakes in January. Mr. Ford goes to Chicago to-morrow for the purpose of procuring another lot, and parties desiring a hat, should leave their order with him this evening to insure a fit.

—Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt of the First ward, entertained a very pleasant company, on Saturday evening, in honor of Mrs. C. G. Williams, of Watertown, Dakota. The bountiful repast served was in keeping with the good cheer, and hearty enjoyment that prevailed throughout the evening.

—Mary Mulvaney, the widow and administratrix, of the late Thomas Mulvaney, killed by the falling of the walls of the Fifth ward fire district, has sued the city, claiming the damages at five thousand dollars. Messrs. Hyzer & Clark, and Carpenter & McGowan, are the plaintiff's attorneys.

—Happiness came to the home of Mr. Thomas McKee, of the third ward, last Saturday and the little ten pound guy that was added to the circle already shows signs of contentment and proposes to become a permanent boarder. A great deal of joy and some care, clusters about the advent of the first baby in the home and does much to break up the monotony of life, about as adventures of the kind demand, about the romance without marring the joy and care to any great extent. What is home without a baby? Give it up; we never experimented with that kind of a home.

—The Inter Ocean: "Magie Mitchell has done so well at Hooley's all the week that Manager Paddock smiles and says: 'The perennial blossom is once more with us and as fragrant as ever.' At all the hints and suggestions of Miss Magie's possible loss of grip on the public Mr. Paddock simply takes the doubter into the house and shows the seats all full; then he takes him to the box office, gets the figures, "550," "775," "800," "950," and so on and asks: "Does that look like a little faded flower?" And the doubting Thomas is squelched in his own conceit. It does seem that so long as Magie Mitchell preserves her name her chic and her graceful and tender interpretation of "Faust," just so long will she draw. It is the play that her own name that attracts a second generation."

—There was a very interesting song service at the Congregational church last evening, in connection with the usual discourse by the Rev. Dr. Hodge. A quartet consisting of Mrs. St. John, Mrs. Conrad, Mr. J. V. Boyer, of Milwaukee, and Mrs. William Bladen. The numbers of the evening were "Sabbath Evening," quartet; "Wanderer's Night Song," Mrs. Charles B. Conrad and Mrs. St. John; "Hear us, O Father," quartet; "Morning Lull" Mrs. St. John and Mr. Boyer; "For of the stars there is rest," Mr. Boyer; "Protect us through the coming night," quartet. There was a very large audience in the evening, the church being filled. Mr. Boyer is an excellent tenor, having his voice under thorough cultivation.

THE RACES.

On the Fair Ground on Saturday.

The Grand Stable of the Rock County Fair for 1884.

The races at the fair on Saturday afternoon consisted of the 235 class, and that for colts. There were five entries in the former and four in the latter class, and the crowd in attendance was highly entertained. The following is the summary of the races:

235 CLASS.

William S. 1 1/2
Allergo 2 1/2
Sally 3 1/2
J. Vanhook 4 1/2
Time—2:24 1/2

COLT RACE.

J. H. Canby, b. g., "Euphonia" 1 1/2
J. D. Canby, b. g., "Euphonia" 2 1/2
H. D. McKenney, b. g., "Euphonia" 3 1/2
J. Vanhook, b. g., "Euphonia" 4 1/2
Time—2:24 1/2

During the afternoon, Mr. H. S. Woodruff, of this city, exhibited his celebrated stallion "Joe Bassett," the sire of "Johnson," the fastest pacer in the world, and Mr. Olin Stoddard, of Beloit, gave an exhibition with his pet pacer, with a running mate.

There were three foot races, which were won respectively by Charles Anderson, John Birmingham and Jerry Carter. The boys' equestrian display also took place. The fair was pronounced a success in every particular, and all retired well pleased, determined to make the fair of 1885 still better—weather permitting.

HORSE THIEF.

Arrest of a Horse Thief and Recovery of a Span of Stage Horses.

On Saturday at noon a stranger with a team of horses drove up to the Pomeroy house and put out his team, and immediately endeavored to sell or trade the team with Mr. Snyder. Being unable to strike a bargain with Mr. Snyder he offered his entire outfit, estimated to be worth about $350, to Mr. Bargan for $150, but did not effect a sale. He then tried to dispose of the team to Dr. Fiehlblatt, and partly succeeded, but for the suspicious of the stranger to dispose of the property. Marshal Mogus was informed of the transaction, and knowing that a team had been stolen from Broadhead a few nights ago, he arrested the stranger on suspicion. Yesterday deputy sheriff Nelson, of Waukesha county, arrived in this city, in search of a thief who had bred a lively team of Mr. Boynton, of Milwaukee, on Friday, promising to return on Saturday. Nelson identified the team, and to-day Mr. Boynton arrived to claim his property. The thief gives his name as Henry A. Wild, of Milwaukee.

Wild is charged with stealing a span of horses in New London last summer, and disposing of them in Oshkosh, for which he understood a reward is offered for his arrest, and Marshal Mogus is holding onto the thief in hopes to claim this reward. Wild is also charged with having a stolen horse in Racine, for which a reward is offered. Just what course our Marshal (through whom the capture of the thief and recovery of the Milwaukee team was made) will do, is not known, but certainly if a reward is offered, he should have it.

LATER.

Deputy Sheriff Nelson and Boynton started this afternoon for home, overland, with team and prisoner.

Tobacco Sales.

Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J. S. Gane's Son & Co., tobacco brokers, No. 121 Water street, New York, for the week ending October 5, 1884:

300 cases, crop of 1883, Pennsylvania, at 8 to 12 cents.

200 cases, crop of 1882, Pennsylvania, at 8 to 12 cents.

200 cases, crop of 1881, Pennsylvania, at 5 to 12 cents.

300 cases, crop of 1883, Wisconsin Havana, at 10 to 15 cents.

100 cases, crop of 1882, Wisconsin Havana, at 10 to 15 cents.

100 cases, crop of 1883, New England, Hav. at 10 to 15 cents.

50 cases, crop of 1882, Ohio, at 10 to 15 cents.

50 cases, crop of 1883, Ohio, at 10 to 15 cents.

Total cases, 1,651.

Method Commissioners.

The school commissioners held a regular meeting on Saturday evening, at which all the members were present.

The journal of the former meeting was approved and two small bills added.

The only other business of general interest transacted was the temporary transfer of the following teachers in the Fourth district: Miss Emma Clark from the second to the first intermediate department, Miss Lizzie Peterson from the first primary to the second, intermediate and Miss Mary Conway from the second to the first primary department.

The board also voted to employ Miss Kate Richardson as a temporary supply teacher in the second primary department of the Fourth district.

On motion adjourned.

Please call at Sutherland's book store and take a look at their large and elegant stock of albums, miscellaneous books, art goods, and all the latest novelties. Their stock this year far exceeds that of any other.

PERSONAL.

—Inspector J. D. King, of the postoffice department, is in the city, smiling on his hosts of friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. Archie Galbraith will leave to-morrow for St. Louis and the southwest, intending to be absent a couple of weeks.

Ogden H. Fathers, Esq., went to Monroe to-day, to attend the Green county circuit court, where he has a large amount of business demanding his personal attention.

—Mr. C. C. Stocking, the popular east side tenorist artist, left for Ohio this morning on a two week's trip. Mrs. Stocking will conduct the business during her husband's absence.

—Mr. J. M. Burgess, who has been spending the summer in Montana, the National Park, Dakota and Muncie, arrived home on Friday last, intending to spend the winter in Janesville. Mr. Burgess, who left here last spring in poor health, returns much improved, and reports having enjoyed a very pleasant season.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Hart, of the Third ward, started for southern California, this morning. They will spend the winter with Mr. Hart's brother, at Riverside, a little city in the extreme southern part of the state, surrounded with orange groves and where an occasional frost is the only indication of winter. The Gazette joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hart in wishing them a pleasant journey and a safe return.

—Mr. Lyman L. Adams, a prominent Chicago druggist and representative of the National Bond Life Insurance company, of Newark, New Jersey, is in the city, the guest of his sister, Mrs. H. Brand, on Lion street, fourth ward. He thinks strongly of investing in some of the rich farming lands in Rock county, and may possibly go into business in this city. Janesville stands with outstretched arms to welcome all such strangers. Mr. Adams is accompanied by his wife and son.

The light of investigation has irradiated many things that have long been shrouded in doubt and darkness. Medical science has shown that rheumatism and neuralgia are due to an impure condition of the blood. Allopathy, the great specific for these dreadful maladies operates upon the blood, muscles and joints, dissolves the acids that cause disease, and by driving them from the system, brings relief to the sufferer. A. S. Chandler, of the New York Independent, was cured of rheumatism of two years standing.

The Republican Demonstration at Fulton.

The most brilliant republican demonstration ever seen at Fulton was that of last Saturday evening. The republicans there have organized a marching club with torches and full uniforms. In their magnificent demonstration on Saturday evening they were joined by a large number of the Edgerton Blaine and Logan marching club, which also had uniforms and torches. They marched through the streets in splendid order and were led by the Edgerton brass band. The village was on the tip-top of enthusiasm, and the excellent music of the band, the flaming flambeaux and the glowing torches made the scene on the streets of Fulton one long to be remembered.

It was the intention of those having the republican demonstration in charge, to have the speaking in the Congregational church, but the number that wanted to hear it was greater than the capacity of the edifice, so the great crowd assembled at the beautiful park of the public school, and from the steps of the school house the gospel of true republicanism was preached unto the multitude. Mr. Alexander White, president of the Fulton club, presided. Mr. Smith, of the Gazette, addressed the people on "The story of the two parties their principles and their candidates."

"The Hon. James Sutherland, who has done campaign speaking in Fulton for the past thirty years, and is justly popular there as he is in every other part of the county, made one of his characteristic speeches—full of facts and arguments and seasoned with anecdotes and stories, which both instructed and amused his hearers. Senator Lord was present and made a few remarks, and promised to speak at several places in the county during the campaign on protecting tobacco and wool. The doctor is a splendid tariff speaker.

The republicans of Fulton are extraordinarily enthusiastic and are going to make their enthusiasm count in this campaign. With such wide-awake republicans as Mr. White and Howard Lee and scores of others, the campaign will be made a lively one and a good report made in November.

The habitual use of pills is a sure means of ultimately undermining health and laying the foundation for some of the most distressing cases of chronic malady. Use Dr. Jones' Kidney & Bladder Pills, a purely vegetable remedy, which cures and regulates the system, purifies the blood, breaks all diseases of the stomach, liver, blood and kidneys. Can be taken by the most delicate. 50 cents. Sold by Stearns & Baker.

Remember the date of Burr Robbins' show is October 15th.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer indicated 70 degrees above zero. Cloudy with south wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 70 degrees above zero. Cloudy with south wind. For the corresponding hours last year the register was 37 and 32 degrees above zero.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 51 degrees above zero. Clear, with west wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 79 degrees above zero. Clear with south-west wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 50 and 55 degrees above zero.

Great Discovery.

Mr. Wm. Thomas, of Newton, Ia., says: "My wife has been seriously affected with a cough for twenty-five years, and this spring more severely than ever before. She had used many remedies with but little result, and was about to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and so, with most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved her very much, and the second bottle has absolutely cured her. She has not had so good a head for thirty years."

Trial bottles free at J. Sherer & Co.'s drug store. Large size $1.00.

Don't Forget that Burr Robbins will exhibit in Janesville, Wednesday, October 15th.

BLAINE AND LOGAN.

An Enthusiastic Republican Meeting in Lappin's Hall Saturday Evening.

An Able Address by Dr. J. H. Randall, of Jamestown, New York.

On Saturday evening Lappin's music hall was well filled by an audience made up principally of the workmen of the city, many of whom were Irishmen, for the purpose of listening to an address by Dr. J. H. Randall, of Jamestown, N. Y. Shortly after seven o'clock, companies A and B of the Blaine & Logan Invincibles, with the Bower City Band, turned out in uniform, with their torches, for the purpose of escorting the speaker to the hall. The Invincibles marched west on Dodge street to High, north on High street to West Milwaukee, east on West Milwaukee street to Main, south on Main to Court street, and counter-marched north to North First street, and thence to East Milwaukee street, where some very fine maneuvers were executed, showing companies A and B to be well drilled. After giving three cheers for Blaine and Logan, the Invincibles marched to the armory and dispersed. While the procession was passing the Church block on West Milwaukee street some humor-brute threw an egg, striking the large Blaine and Logan transparency, carried by Andrew Jackson. Mr. Jackson "took" his share of the egg, and informed the origin of the company, but the humorist who threw it could not be found. The club offers a reward of ten dollars for his arrest. While the person guilty of throwing the egg was undoubtedly a democrat and a Cleveland man, we will not charge the humorist and cowardly act to that party, believing the democrats in this city as well as the republicans, discontinue every such act. We hope the villain will be arrested.

At the hall Mr. Wilson Lane presided, the hall being well filled. Dr. Randall was introduced by Mr. Lane, and spoke for about an hour and a half, delivering one of the best speeches of the campaign. The speech was more particularly for Irish-Americans, and for protected labor in the United States. Dr. Randall's extensive travels in the United States, having visited every one of the states with two exceptions, in the interest of the Irish Land League, and Knights of Labor, well qualified him to speak for the working man. He had no abuse to hurl at the democrats or other parties, but his speech abounded in plain statements of facts, showing how false were the doctrines of free trade. The doctor was frequently interrupted by long continued applause, and when he concluded, every one remarked that it was the most logical and convincing republican argument listened to in this city for a long time.

Dr. Randall has consented to again address the people of Janesville this evening, the meeting to be held in the court house park. The Bower City band will be present and furnish music for the occasion.

BURR ROBBINS' CIRCUS.

It Was All They Advertised, Something Quite Unusual.

Our people were agreeably surprised by the advent of the Robbins' aggregation. They arrived here this morning about six o'clock. The street pageant of the morning was extensive and presented some excellent and taking features. The horses and animals were of the finest, not the usual collection of over-worked, sawn-up stock generally to be seen. The appointments generally of the show were superior in quality.

Our reporter had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Robbins and found him to be a gentleman. He took pleasure in showing us the distinctive features of his show, which are numerous. In the menagerie, we found a unique specimen in natural history, called the cow antelope, a mammoth horse, a very large elephant, a fine herd of camels, and an excellent and abundant variety of other animals.

In the side show, perhaps, the chief feature is Captain Hadley, the tattooed man. The work on his body was a marvel of perfect tattoo painting. There were also other interesting specimens. We were shown throughout the entire combination, and found the conveniences to be first class, and the attitudes characterized by a courteous and quiet demeanor. We do not hesitate to say that it is one of the best shows ever brought to this city.—Petersburg (West Virginia) Journal, July 17th.

At Janesville, Wednesday, October 13, afternoon and evening.

THE MONSTER MASS MEETING.

Arranging the Details for the Grand Republican Demonstration October 16th.

The general committee of arrangements for the monster republican mass meeting to be held in this city on the afternoon and evening of Thursday October 16th, held a meeting on Saturday evening at the republican headquarters, for the purpose of making arrangements for the grand event.

Mr. Charles E. Pierce, recording secretary of the Blaine and Logan club, was requested to issue circular invitations to neighboring clubs, urging them to attend this meeting.

Mr. Charles Atwood was appointed chief marshal, with authority to appoint his own aids.

Dr. Henry Palmer and Mr. A. P. Bennett were appointed a committee on rail roads.

Messrs. S. C. Barham, C. E. Pierce and B. F. Crockett were appointed a committee on torches.

Messrs. W. T. Vankirk, Wilson Lane and W. A. Harrington were appointed a committee on organizing the county.

Dr. Henry Palmer was appointed as a committee on fire works.

Ogden H. Fathers, Thos. Judd and J. B. LaGrange were appointed a committee on motions and transparencies.

The meeting of the committee was quite enthusiastic, and there is no doubt of the success of the meeting. Reports from the county indicate that every able-bodied republican will be present. Let the ball roll.

Men's British half-boots, full regular made, 20c pair, 3 pair for 50c.
